OVERVIEW

NCL and Hawaii – a match made in heaven! In fact, only NCL can take you to spectacular Hawaii on a brand new ship 365 days a year. We sail to four different ports on the four major islands in Hawaii on 7-day cruises and five ports on 10- and 11-day cruises. Let NCL transport you in style to Honolulu, Kahului, Lahaina, Nawiliwili, Hilo, Kona, and NCL's unspoiled hideaway, Fanning Island. And only NCL offers Freestyle Cruising, giving you more freedom of choice and variety than any other cruise line today.

As the leader in Hawaii cruising, NCL is expanding its presence in the 50th state like never before, with three NCL America ships sailing inter-island cruises and one NCL ship sailing Hawaii/Fanning Island itineraries.

The Pride of Aloha was the first U.S. flagged ocean-going passenger vessel in nearly 50 years, with 100% U.S. crew. Coupled with a wide array of pre/post hotels, these cruises offer the chance to experience all of Hawaii, both by land and by sea with two embarkation ports, Honolulu and Maui. The Pride of Aloha departs from Honolulu every Sunday and from Maui every Saturday, and they call to the beautiful ports of Nawiliwili, Kahului, Hilo and Kona on their 7-day voyage.

Pride of America is a stunning new ship, which offers a year-round schedule of roundtrip 7-day Hawaii, cruises from Honolulu every Saturday. Her spatial configuration, with over 700 private balcony staterooms, offers guests a breathtaking view of Hawaii every day from the privacy and comfort of their own room.

Not to be left out, Norwegian Wind will resume her popular 10- and 11-day Hawaii itineraries for those guests desiring a longer Hawaii cruise and who have more time to savor the beauty of Hawaii. In addition to all the exciting ports visited on 7-day sailings, the Wind offers guests an opportunity to visit Fanning Island, NCL's unspoiled Pacific hideaway in the Republic of Kiribati.

And just when you thought Hawaii cruising couldn't get any bigger or better, think again!

Pride of Hawaii is currently being finished. This stunning new ship will offer a year-round schedule of roundtrip 7-day Hawaii cruises from Honolulu every Monday.

Combined, these itineraries are far-reaching in their variety and scope, and offer the most comprehensive and attractive Hawaii cruise program ever assembled in the cruise industry. With a choice of four ships, many distinct itineraries and a plethora of modern amenities, NCL's Hawaii program is unmatched in the industry and offers guests the best of Hawaii and NCL, all in one convenient package.

This manual is designed to assist sales managers and travel agents alike in marketing NCL to the consumer, and showing them the many benefits that NCL has to offer. New ships, a fresh and contemporary cruise product, homeland and exotic itineraries, first-class service, travel agent friendly policies, and a commitment to innovation – these are just a few of the many reasons to be associated with NCL. The following pages cover NCL's Hawaii product in detail, and should be used as a supplemental brochure reference tool.

HAWAII

Summary

As the leader in Hawaii cruising, NCL offers the most exciting and comprehensive cruise program ever offered in the industry. With a choice of 7-, 10- and 11-day cruises that visit all of the four major Hawaii islands (Oahu, Hawaii, Maui and Kauai) as well as the unspoiled paradise of Fanning Island, guests can choose the length of vacation they want, and escape to the warm sunshine and spectacular scenery of Hawaii anytime throughout the year. NCL has developed its largest Hawaii deployment ever, with three NCL America<sup>sm</sup> ships (Pride of Aloha, Pride of America and Pride of Hawaii) sailing inter-island cruises and one NCL ships (Norwegian Wind) sailing Hawaii/Fanning Island itineraries.

Passports

All guests traveling abroad are required to carry a passport that is valid for at least two months after their return date. Non-U.S. citizens residing in the U.S. need a Resident Alien Card for their return to the U.S.

Currently, U.S. immigration regulations require all guests (including Canadian) to carry a valid passport on Hawaii cruises that call at Fanning Island in the Republic of Kiribati (Norwegian Wind).

Description of Ports

Fanning Island, Republic of Kiribati

Not visited by any other cruise line, Fanning Island adds contrast to NCL's Hawaii product. This exclusive port of call offers a perspective of unspoiled Micronesia contrasted with modern Hawaii. Apart from the sheer charm of Fanning's people, the distant island offers a once-in-a-lifetime experience only visited by NCL. This rustic unspoiled paradise in what was formerly called the Gilbert Islands is NCL's private getaway. Residents are warm, friendly people who smile often, love to sing and dance, and are unspoiled by the outside world. Their main sustenance is fish and coconuts. Guests can buy hand-made crafts, including woven items like grass mats, bowls made from small shells, and decorative knives made from shark teeth and palm. Republic of Kiribati postage stamps are highly prized by philatelists. Guests should bring a camera and wander to nearby villages and settlements, or head for the beach. Or just sit back, relax and drink in the ocean views. During a visit to Fanning, guests may enjoy a barbecue hosted by NCL, biking excursions, kayaking, sail boating, beach floats, or snorkeling. With beautiful beaches to enjoy alongside the unique culture of Fanning Island, this will be a highlight on any NCL Hawaii cruise, be it 7-, 10- or 11-days.

Hilo, Hawaii

Hilo by the bay is a charming residential port town nestled between the volcanic slopes and forest reserves of magnificent Mauna Kea and Mauna Loa. Hilo is widely considered The Big Island's most tropical town, an exotic year-round greenhouse of flourishing flowers and lush tropical plants under a canopy of towering Banyan trees, and a landscape well-endowed with natural wonders, including thundering falls and volcanic fissures. One of our excursions, the Volcano National Park Odyssey, offers guests the opportunity to visit spectacular Mount Kilauea, one of the world's most active volcanoes, standing at just over 5,000 feet.

Honolulu, Oahu

Combine the languid allure of the tropics, big-city sophistication, and the spirit of "Aloha," and the result could only be Honolulu. This Pacific crossroad features museums, dazzling beaches, historic Pearl Harbor, and spectacular sunrises over Diamond Head crater. In spring, gardenias and jasmine bloom, and the air is thick with the heady fragrance of floral leis. On Waikiki, pink sunsets cast a magical glow over fabled beaches and a sea studded with bobbing sails.

Kahului, Maui

The readers of Condé Nast Traveler voted Maui the best island in the world – and they've done so four years running. This beautiful tropical paradise serves as the gateway to all that Maui has to offer including adventure excursions through the mountains, fun and sun beach getaways, windsurfing, and many more.

Kona, Hawaii

The sun always shines on the golden Kona coast, a resort community on the west side of Hawaii's Big Island. Instead of white sandy beaches, the undulating shore is ringed with an interconnected maze of shallow tidal pools, teeming with marine life and an abundance of spectacular snorkeling spots. From the macadamia nut orchards to Kona's famous coffee plantations, the coast is lined with some of the most important sites in Hawaiian history.

Lahaina, Maui

Step ashore in Maui's largest town to white sandy beaches, swaying palms and traces of Hawaii's turbulent history, filled with tales of Maui chiefs, covetous whalers, and self-righteous missionaries. Most of the main attractions are in historic downtown, with its restored New England-style wooden buildings. The tributary of tiny avenues running from Front Street is dense with shops, restaurants, and hideaways. After the capital moved to Honolulu in 1845, Lahaina became a sleepy sugar town and missionary stronghold, site of the first school and printing press west of the Rockies.

Nawiliwili, Kauai

Beautiful Nawiliwili is your passage into the sacred "Garden Isle," where the sweet smell of the mokihana berry permeates the air and the lush green landscape intoxicates your senses. This is a land of rain forests and smooth, rounded mountains, cascading waterfalls, and towering ocean cliffs. Kauai is a land so beautiful that even the natives come here for the scenery.

Vancouver, British Columbia

If you really want to understand this city, stand at the edge of the Inner Harbor (the prow of the Canada Place pavilion makes a good vantage point) and look up: past the floatplanes taking off over Stanley Park, around the container terminals, over the tiny waterfront high-rises, and then up the steep green slopes of the north shore mountains to the twin snowy peaks of the Lions. What you have seen--90% of it anyway--is the result of collaboration, unique in history, between God and the Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR). It was the Almighty--or Nature (depending on your point of view)--who raised the Coast Range, and then sent a glacier slicing along its foot, simultaneously carving out a deep trench and piling up a tall moraine of rock and sand. When the ice retreated, water from the Pacific flowed in and the moraine became a peninsula, flanked on one side by a deep natural harbor, and on the other by a river of glacial meltwater. Working indoors, Vancouverites fall in love with the outside: mountain biking, windsurfing, kayaking, rock climbing, parasailing, snowboarding, and backcountry skiing. When all these had been done, they begin experimenting with new sports, and strange summer-winter combinations were born: skiing-kayaking, mountain biking snowboarding, and snowshoe-paragliding. Folks seemed happy with the new state of affairs. And the rest of the world seemed to agree. Outside magazine voted it one of the 10 best cities in the world to live in. One of the 10 best to visit, according to Condé Nast Traveler. The World Council of Cities ranked it second only to Geneva for quality of life. Heavy stuff, particularly for a spot that less than 20 years ago was routinely derided as the world's biggest mill town.
